

Farsley Farfield Primary School

Person Specification – Class Teacher

Essential	Desirable	Identified through...
Qualified Teacher Status		Application and certificates at interview
Evidence of very good feedback as regards classroom performance		Application, references and supporting documents
Commitment to hard work, and reliability		Reference
Team working		Reference
Very good classroom practice including high quality feedback		Selection process References
Very good IT skills and a positive attitude to the application of IT		Application Selection process
Ability to create a safe, supportive and stimulating learning environment for all pupils and contribute proactively to safeguarding and child protection.		Application Selection process
Attention to personalised learning, including Special Educational Needs		Application Selection process
Commitment to a partnership with parents, including use of IT and blogging		Application Selection process
Enthusiasm		Selection process
	Sense of humour	Selection process
	Progressive personal ethics	Application Selection process
	An interest in environmentalism or horticulture	Application
	An interest and willingness to lead in extra curricular activity	Application Selection process
	Willingness to lead a subject at a suitable time	Application Selection process