Safeguarding

Safeguarding Children and Young People with Disabilities

Outline

The protection of disabled children presents a great challenge for professional carers and families to work effectively together to provide appropriate safety from abuse. The course provides an overview of abuse and the opportunity to review good practice. This course will raise awareness of key issues linked to children and young people with disabilities and potential behaviours and the vulnerabilities professionals should be aware of and when that increases risk.

Description

The course is suitable for any professional who may be working with children, young people and their families, particularly Designated Safeguarding Leads in schools, pastoral staff and professionals working in clusters that have contact with families and children.

Outcome

- Upon completion of this course, participants will have had the opportunity to:
- Improve awareness of the vulnerability of children with disabilities to abuse
- Examine appropriate methods of investigation where abuse is a concern
- Consider those procedures which enhance the safety of children with disabilities
- Explore the needs of disabled children who have been abused
