

Camp Over Saturday 1st July

Friday, May 26, 2017

Farsley Farfield PTA's Summer Camp-Over is back by popular demand for a fourth year! Great weather has been booked again. If you are new to the school or haven't been to a Camp-Over before, have a look at photos of previous years: 2016, 2015 . Families can attend on a day ticket or bring a tent or caravan: last year we had nearly 500 people on site and about 70 camping families!

This year we have lined up a 200ft inflatable assault course where we will be organising a family competition, the return of our jaw-dropping world-renowned juggler, an extended encore from the musical duo with a very talented teacher in the line-up, Diddy Dennis (small fire engine ride) and a display by White Rose Cheer Leaders. As well as this, we will have favourites from previous years: an on-going water fight, tug of war, face painting, bouncy castle, den-making, camp fire and more...

Most importantly, the day is about families and children relaxing and playing together: we don't provide minute by minute entertainment but everyone has fun.

Food will be a bit different this year: there will be no BBQ but Grumpy's from Farsley will be joining us to sell their wonderful pizzas from 12.00pm-5.00pm and there will be chilli/curry (with vegetarian options) or hot meat sandwiches available in the early evening (hot dogs for children). There will be a licensed bar. Families will also be invited to provide home-baked produce for a cake stall. On Sunday morning, the school kitchen staff are laying on a full cooked breakfast (additional charge): letter to follow next term. Terms and conditions and food order forms will be sent out with confirmation of booking. Please complete the form overleaf.

Comment from a parent 2016:

"We had so much fun!!! Thank you to everyone involved, my kids made some very special memories that will last them until next time... The smiles on the photos speak volumes!! Farsley Farfield rocks!"
